FBOP – Flowery Broken Orange Pekoe TGFOP – Tippy Golden Flowery Orange Pekoe

Flowery refers to the leaf taken from the end bud and first leaf of each shoot. Broken means leaves that are not perfect, perhaps split or incomplete. Golden means the youngest most freshest leaves. Tippy means the tips of the leaves. Pekoe is of Chinese origin, thought to mean the leaves are picked when the buds have fine hairs on them. Orange is thought to refer to the Dutch Orange-Nassau tea company.

What doesn't make the grade usually end up called fannings which are mixed together and end up in supermarket teabags!
